Luigi welcomes two customers and, after seating them, he hands them the menu.

Luigi : Here's the menu and the wine list.
Gentleman : Thank you.
Luigi : Would you like an aperitive before you order ?
Lady : Yes, please.

After they have drunk the aperitif and read the menu, Luigi returns to the table to see if he can take their order.

Luigi : Would you like to order now ?
Gentleman : What would you recommend ?
Luigi : Would you prefer meat or fish ?
Gentleman : Fish.
Luigi : Well, I think you should try our prawn bouquet with white Martini sauce.... or sea bass ravioli with shellfish sauce... or perhaps grilled lobster....
Gentleman : Mm.... they sound good. What's Martini sauce made of ?
Luigi : It's similar to cocktail sauce, made of mayonnaise, fresh tomato, balsamic vinegar, white Martini and rocket.
Gentleman : Is it spicy ?
Luigi : No, it isn't. It's delicious.
Gentleman : I'll follow your advice. I'll have prawn bouquet to start and then sea bass ravioli... But is there garlic in the filling ?
Luigi : No, there isn't.
Gentleman : Fine.
Luigi : And for you, madam ? have you decided ?
Lady : I don't eat fish or meat. I'm vegetarian. What is the soup of the day ?
Luigi : It's a cream of asparagus. It's served with croutons.
Lady : I'll have that.
Luigi : And what would you like to follow ?
Lady : I'd like a salad.
Luigi : Would you like a green salad ?
Lady : No, I'd rather have a mixed salad.
Luigi : Very well, madam. And what would you like to drink with your meal ?

Lady : A bottle of still mineral water.

Luigi : Would you like some wine, too ?

Gentleman : Yes, please. I'd like some white wine from Italy. Wich wine do you suggest ?

Luigi : May I suggest Vermentino from Liguria ?

Gentleman : Vermentino will be fine.

Luigi : Thank you. I'll be right back with yor drink
